NARRATIVE 1	Topic	SUPPLEMENTAL
	On 03/16/2014, at approximately 1200 hours, Officer Reveredo and I responded to Christmas Tree Island in reference to the recovery of a stolen vessel.
	I met with the vessel owner, Andrew Santeiro, who told me he located his previously reported stolen vessel. Santeiro stated his neighbor, Joseph McNulty, who has a vessel moored near Santeiro, saw his boat floating in the Key West harbor near Christmas Tree Island. Santeiro stated his vessel is now on the beach at the island and he also located the stolen motor but it was no longer attached to the vessel.
	Santeiro's neighbor, Joseph McNulty, stated he saw two men on a white dingy heading toward Christmas Tree Island, at approximately 2330 hours, on the night the vessel was stolen. McNulty stated, approximately 15 min later he saw the same vessel drifting away from the island with no persons and no motor. A later inspection revealed the vessel to be Santeiro's stolen vessel. McNulty could not positively identify the vessel or the persons in the vessel.
Santeiro remounted the motor onto the vessel and inspected the vessel. Santeiro was able to establish that no items were missing.
